Keepin' It Clean (KIC) is a Faith Based Cross Cultural Open Mic series that celebrates the Lord Jesus Christ through the performing arts. KIC takes place one Sunday a month at the Improv, Pittsburgh. Keepin' It Clean will feature a special local/national faith based performance artist each month.

Your Host Christian Rapper/Comedian Minister "Real Deal" Brady Hill

Special guest "The Founders of Gospel MIME" Pittsburgh's own K&K MIME.

We encourage all spoken word artist, musicians, comedians, groups, mimes and poets from the tri-state area to come and share their gifts on the Open Mic. Just remember to keep it clean. KIC designed to bridge the gap between denominations and cultures to bring all the Lords people together by celebrating Him through the performing arts. Celebration may not be longer than 5 minutes.

If you wish to perform, registration begins and doors open at 2:15pm. The event begins promptly at 3:15pm and ends at exactly at 5:15pm. We ask that each artist bring with them their performance materials.

There is a cover charge of $5 (cash only!) at the door.

Proceeds benefit Mad Dads of Greater Pittsburgh (Men Against Destruction-Defending Against Drugs and Social Disorder). www.maddads.com
